

MOOR PARK

Moor Park Mansion, set in 300 acres of parkland, offers an elegant and respectful surrounding with experienced staff to cater for all your needs at this sad time.

We will liaise with your Funeral Directors to ensure that the day runs smoothly.

Rooms are available to accommodate twenty to two hundred people and we have ample parking spaces.

Full bar and catering facilities are available according to your requirements.

The traditional procedure is as follows:

On arrival at Moor Park Mansion, staff will direct you to your room where there will be a tea and coffee buffet available for your guests. The reception room would be set with informal tables and chairs with the centre of the room being clear to enable circulation. You may wish to have a table with a book of condolence, photographs and memorabilia,

Staff would now circulate with trays of red/white wine, orange juice and mineral water.

Shortly after the chief mourners arrive, buffet food will be served to all guests (plates and napkins are available on each table for guests to help themselves should they wish).

The reception will normally draw to a close after approximately two to three hours.
